P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, printing opens the storehouse of all knowledge and has contributed to all progress since the invention of moveable type and has spread culture, knowledge, science, and learning throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, printing has been a vital factor in the birth and development of our country in which the guarantee of freedom of speech and of the press is sacred and inviolable; and

WHEREAS, in token of the great advances to civilization made possible by the art of printing, it is fitting that tribute be paid honoring the many thousands of people in the printing industries by the observation of Printing Week; and

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARCHIE GUBBRUD, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of January 14-20, 1962 as and urge the citizens of this state to join with me in paying honor to the graphic arts industries and all industries allied to the art of printing for the great contributions they have made to our nation and to the world.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 13th day of November, in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and sixty one.
